Azerbaijan, Georgia, Republic of Moldova and Ukraine: draft resolution

Cooperation between the United Nations and the Organization for Democracy and Economic Development — GUAM

The General Assembly,

Referring to its resolution 58/85 of 9 December 2003, by which it granted the GUUAM observer status in the General Assembly, and taking note that the GUUAM was transformed into the Organization for Democracy and Economic Development — GUAM by the Heads of State of that Organization in their Kyiv Declaration of 23 May 2006,

Recalling that one of the purposes of the United Nations is to achieve international cooperation in solving international problems of a political, economic, social, cultural or humanitarian nature,

Referring to Security Council resolution 1631 (2005) of 17 October 2005, in which the Council recalled its invitation to regional organizations to improve coordination with the United Nations and the declaration of the General Assembly of 9 December 1994 related to the strengthening and improvement of cooperation between the United Nations and regional arrangements or agencies in maintaining international peace and security,[1]

Acknowledging the intention of the Organization for Democracy and Economic Development — GUAM to further develop partnership relations with the United Nations and its Member States, based on the principles of sovereign equality, mutual respect and mutually beneficial cooperation, as well as on the commitment to democratic values, the rule of law, human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Convinced that strengthening cooperation between the United Nations and other organizations of the United Nations system and the Organization for Democracy and Economic Development — GUAM will further contribute to promoting the purposes and principles of the United Nations,
